CRIME OF THE WEEK

Armed Robbery Campbellfield, 23 August 2013

Police are appealing for information after a staff member was allegedly robbed at gunpoint at an adult store in Campbellfield on 23 August, 2013.

It is believed three men arrived at the Hume Highway store at about 10.30 pm.

Two of the men went inside and pushed over several display stands while the third man, who was wearing a fluorescent jacket, kept watch at the front door.

Armed with a gun, one of the men approached a staff member at the counter while the other emptied the cash register.

Police have released images of three men whom they believe may be able to assist them in their inquiries.

The first man is described as being aged in his late teens to early 20's, approximately 182cm tall with a thin build and was wearing a black cap with the words 'cross bones' on it, a black ski mask, a black hoodie, black tracksuit pants, white gloves and had the gun.

The second man is described as having a thin build and was wearing a black balaclava, black hoodie with red trim, black tracksuit pants with white stripes and white gloves.

The third man is described as having a thin build and was wearing a black hoodie, blue balaclava and a fluorescent yellow jacket.

Police would also like to speak to anyone who saw a white VP Holden Commodore outside the store before the incident.
